THE WAY WERE

Christi Is Crowned Yearbook Queen

This year, the yearbook queen was chosen by the rock group the RASPBERRIES. A casual and senior picture of each candidate was sent in to the group along with a short resume that each girl had written about herself. The result of their decision was announced at the Junior-Senior Prom.

(1) Sally Engle, Miss Tigress 1973, awaits to present a bouquet of roses as her escort John Inmon crowns the new queen, Christi Stark.

Stark.
(2) This is the casual shot of Christi which was sent in to the RASPBERRIES.

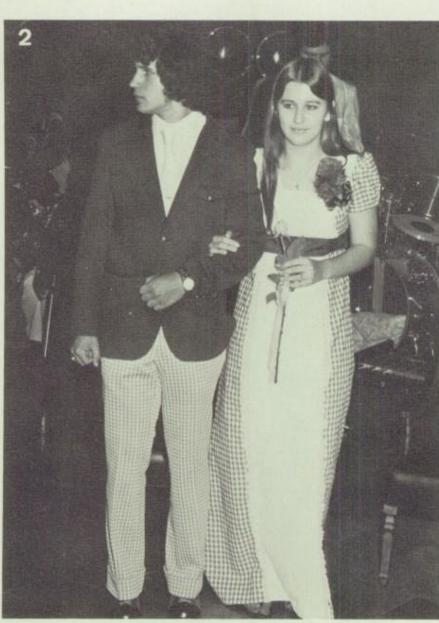

MISS TIGRESS 1974

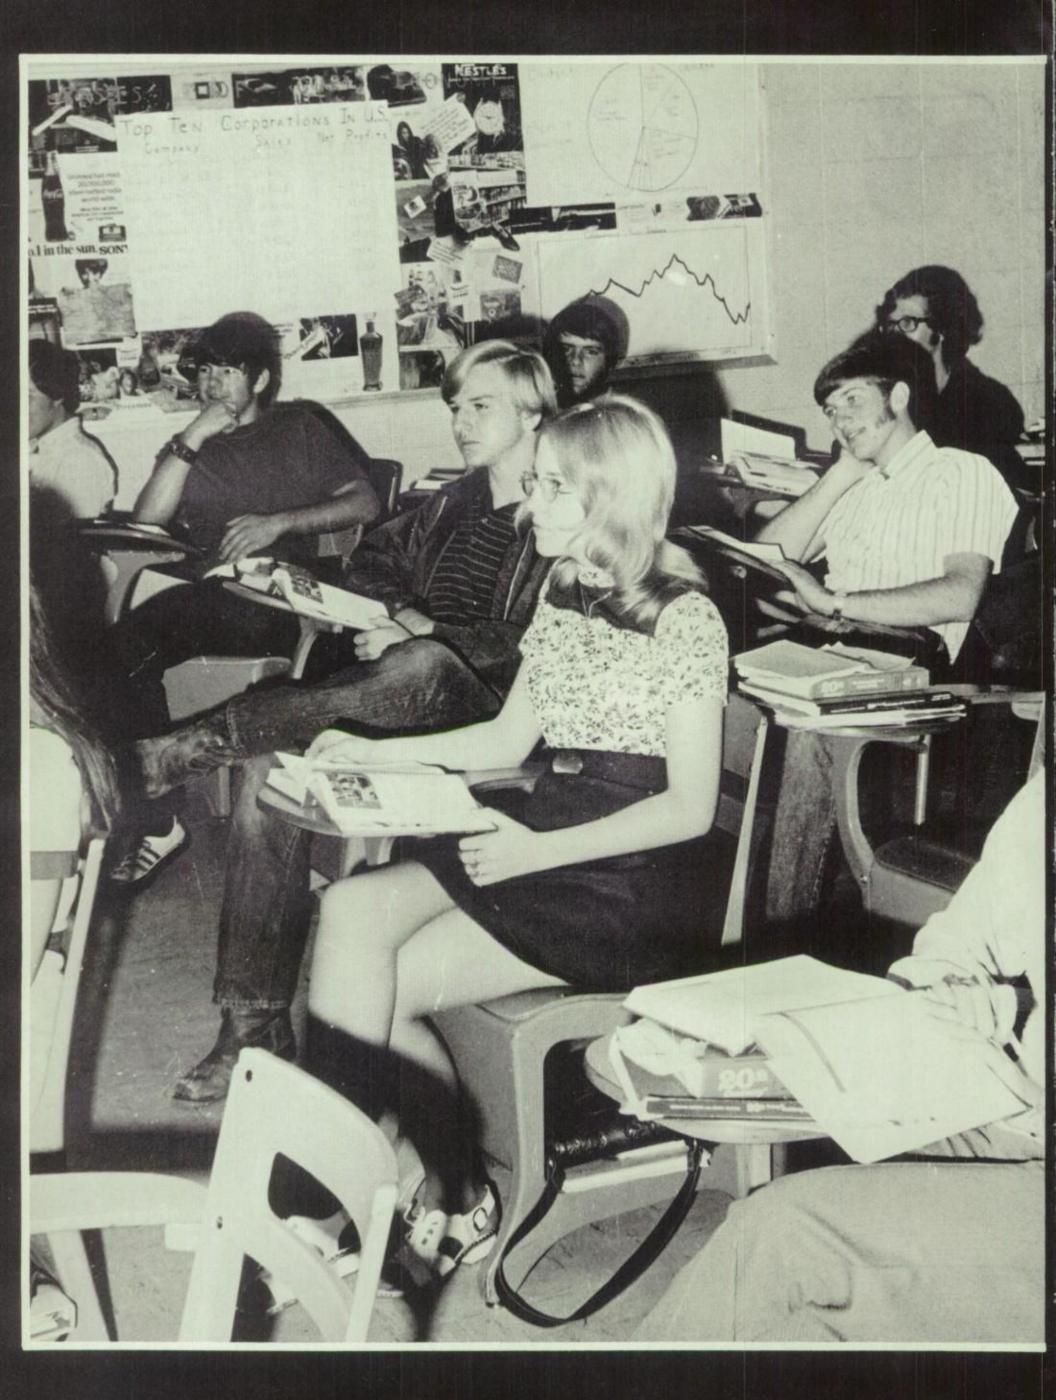

- (1) Candidate Vicky Vick was escorted by John Swinney.
- (2) Steve Jackson escorted candidate Sherry Borovicka.
- (3) Lyn Bennett, candidate, was escorted by Mark Ruckman.
- (4) Here we see Christi's reaction as Mike Bridges announced the new queen. Christi was escorted by Bob Williams.

PERSONNEL CURRICULUM

Board Tackles School Problems

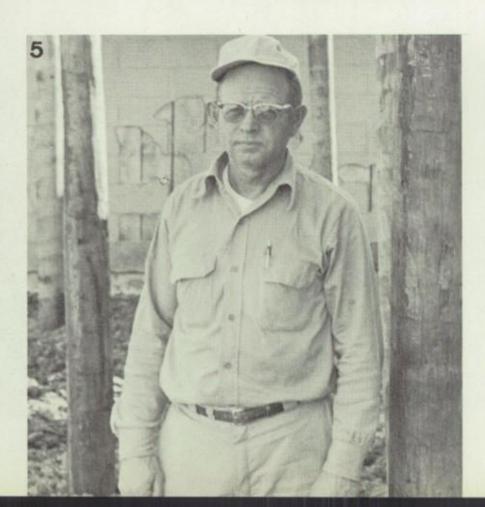

(1) Gathered for one of numerous board meetings are members Wayne Butler, Dan Swearingin, Ross McPhail, Jack Trodgon, William Schatz, and Bill Rader.

Running a school is never an easy job and modern problems of growth and change compound that task. Six men chosen by the community gave hours of time and effort to assume that responsibility. (2) DAN SWEARINGIN, with an active interest, was often seen in school for a first hand look at problems and solutions. (3) Few people on any board could count more hours of service than WAYNE BUTLER. Retiring from his role this year, Mr. Butler was presented a plaque by the CTA for his service. (4) A keen business sense is provided by men like KENNETH DAY who makes time from his lumber-yard enterprise to advise on school matters. (5) The new president of the 74-75 board is BILL RADER, a local agri-businessman with an active interest in the school. (6) DR. ROSS MCPHAIL served ably as past president and was also honored at the Faculty-Board dinner for his leadership. A busy veterinarian, Dr. McPhail managed to meet problems despite his irregular hours. (7) Businessman JACK TRODGON offers counsel on numerous issues. Like others on the board, Mr. Trogdon is a RHS graduate who seeks quality education.

Administration Bridges Relations

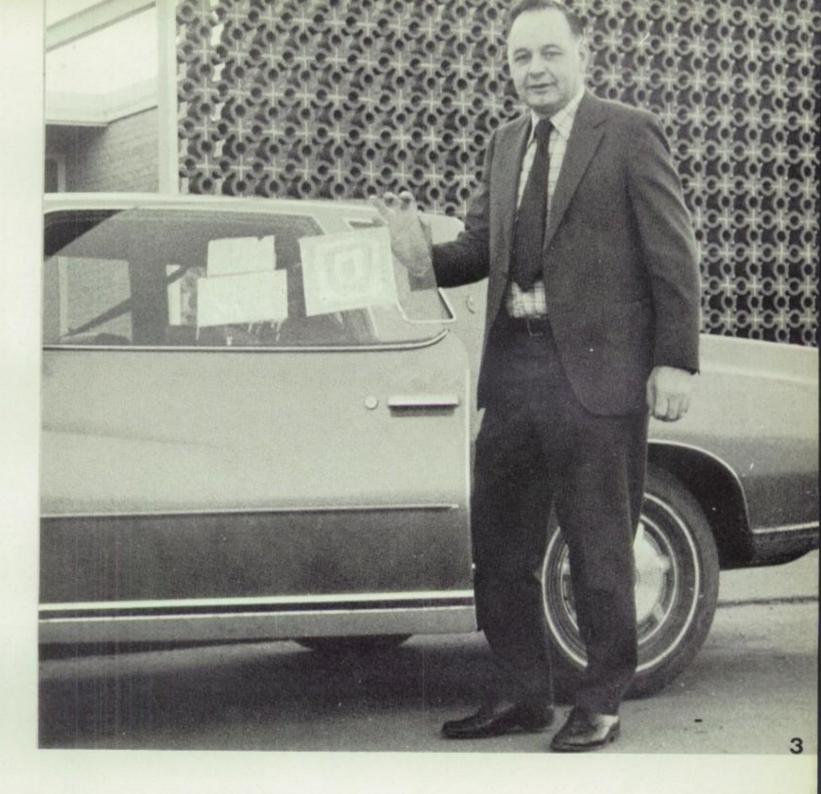

(1) Filling out absentee and tardy slips is one frustrating job for Marvin Bridges. Here Sara Johnson can't figure out why skipping is unexcused.

(2) Acting as a go-between for students and administration testsDonald Farwell's nervous system. Here, Mr. Ovitt and Mr. Farwell discuss the chances of Mr. Ovitt teaching Polish History next year.(4) Bob Fletcher, in his first year as principal in the middle school, proved to be very helpful to the students.

Gap

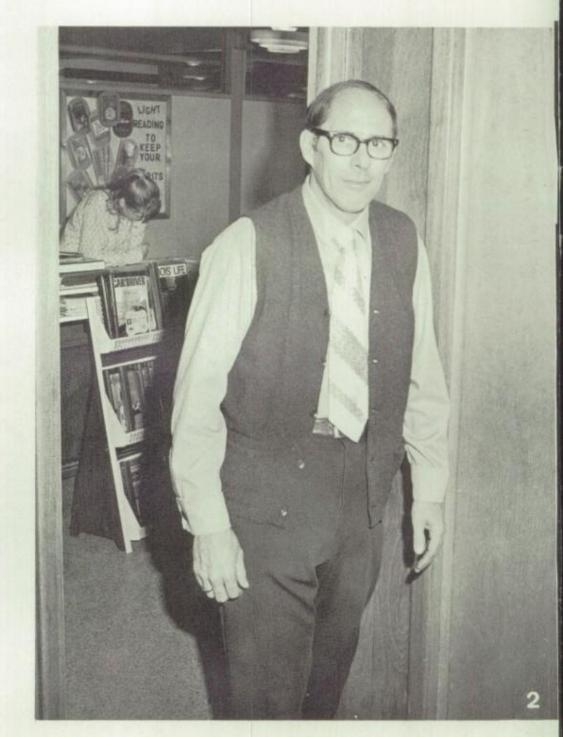

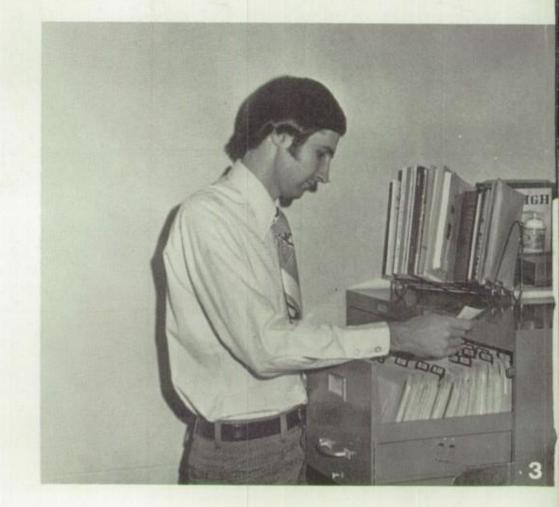

- (3) Being superintendant for 1973-74 kept William Schatz on the go continually.
- (5) With children ranging from kindergarten to 4th grade, grade school principal Geneva Evans is kept busy.

Counselors And Secretaries Provide Help For Students

- (1) Mrs. Gibson helps Terri Adams in choosing the right college for the future.
- (2) Mr. Klingebiel is seen going into his office, where he helps many students with their problems.
- (3) Junior High counselor Mr. Brashears is kept busy daily by the junior high students.

- (1) Answering the phone and keeping records straight are just two of the many jobs performed by Mrs. Floried Mount and Mrs. Sue Brown.
- (2) The Middle School would never run right without the help of Madge Blades.
- (3) Joanna Clouse pauses from a busy day to smile for the camera.

Cooks and Janitors: Cleanliness Is Their Thing

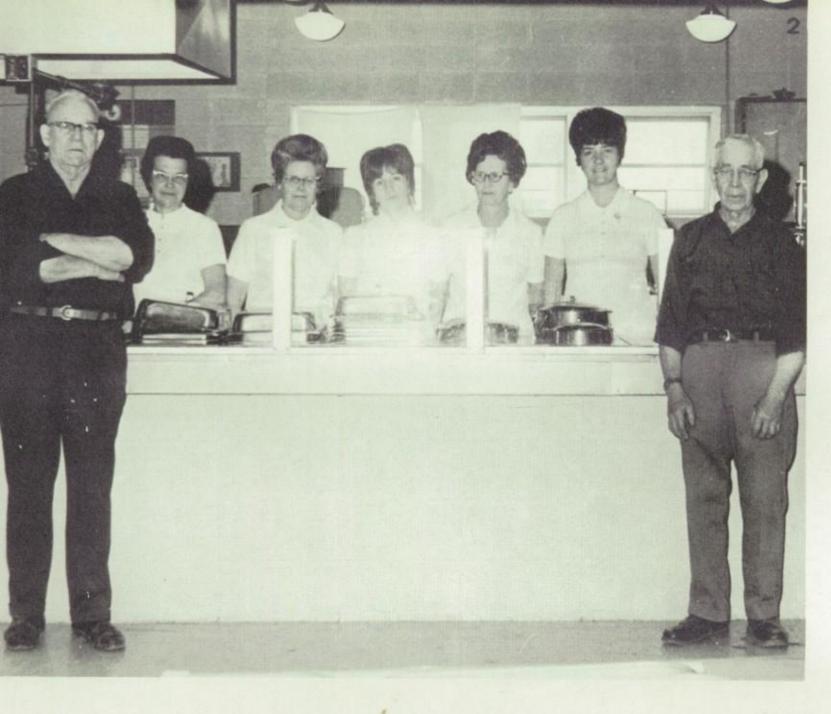

(1) The high school cooks and janitors include: Guy Batson, Dean Cox, Opal Biglieni, Thelma Dorrell, Becky Brown and Raymond Pearce.

(2) Junior high cooks and janitors include: Earl Brown, Helen Blades, Dorothy Scroggins, Orvalyn McGehee, Ada Norman, Noami Garrison and Lewis Britain.

(3) Grade school cooks are: Nelda Johnson, Jewell Booth, Wanda Wade, Shirley White, Martha Dutton, Bonnie Hampton and Suzy DuVall.

(4) Due to the intense paper shortage during the school year, some thoughtful RHS female tried to ease the crunch by depositing a Sear's and Roebuck Catalog in the rest room. It seemed for a while that Republic was reverting back to the "good ol' days".

Library Club Worms Its Way Through Books

(1) Library Club is a new addition to RHS this year. It's first members are: Standing: Susan Wagner, Kim Wood, Beth Faulk, and sponsor Mrs. Anna Owens. Seated: Jeanie Guss, Pat Thompson, Tere Adams, and Ricky Patton.
(2) Beth Faulk and Susan Wagner index books in the RHS library facilities for the the use of the students.

Anna Owens, Librarian. B.S. in Education at SMSU.

1

Work Study Program Help Students Reach Final Goal

2

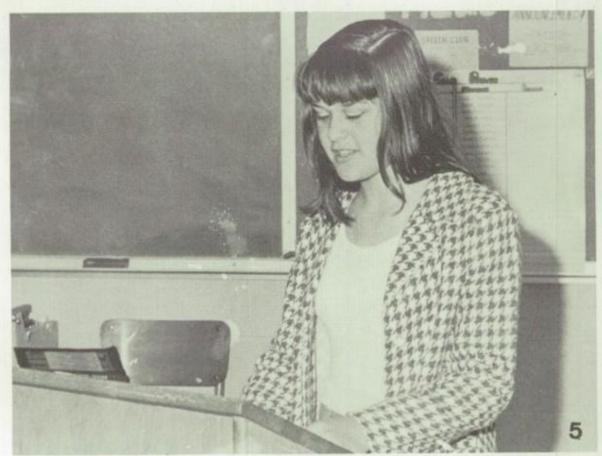

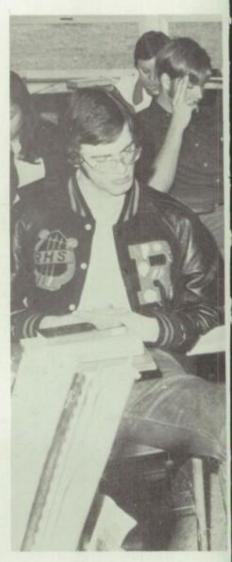

Mrs. Jane Smith—BS in Ed., SMSU, work study program.

- (1) Rex Maupin, Mary Maupin, and Diane Howard study extensively on their daily math assignment.
- (2) Danny Luna, Rex Maupin, Diane Howard, Mary Maupin, and Kathy Thompson take notes from one of Mrs. Smith's lectures in their work study program. This work study program helps and has helped many people into good and well-paying jobs in daily life. Many students are working through this program in jobs around the community.

Fine Arts Something for Everyone From Makeup to MacBeth

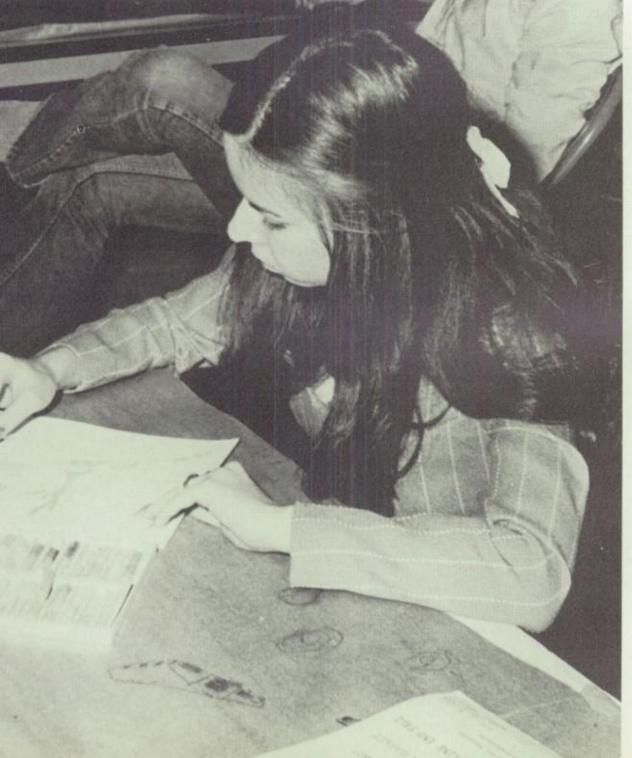

- (1) Robin Hunter, Charles Beebe, Georgia Jones, and Bruce Lindsey display their new faces in Miss Gallion's Dramatics class.
- (2) Mrs. Ray's English IV class reads Macbeth diligently.
- (3) Mrs. Wiebe's Art II class display their "arty" smiles.
- (4) Annis Maples works on coloring a picture with pastels in Art I.
- (5) Michelle Blanche practices her oratory in Miss Gallion's Speech class.

Demonstrations, Tapes Help Enliven Languages

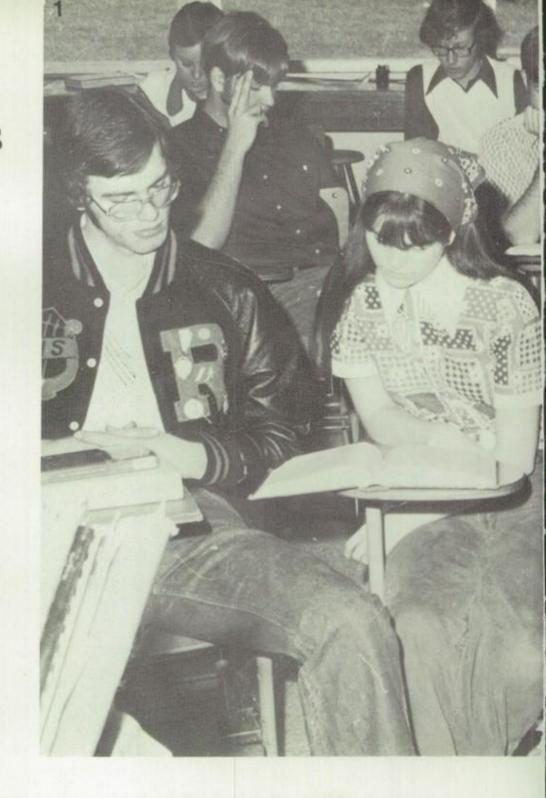

Mrs. Ray

Mrs. Stockton

Mrs. Hancock

Mrs. Mitchell

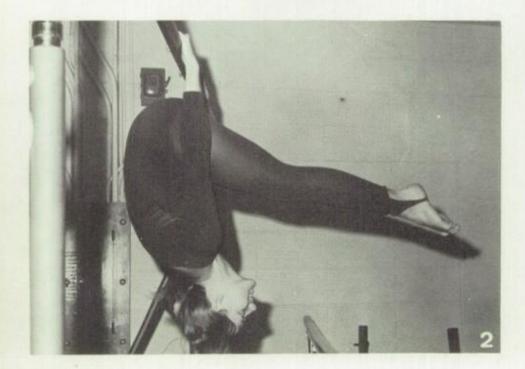

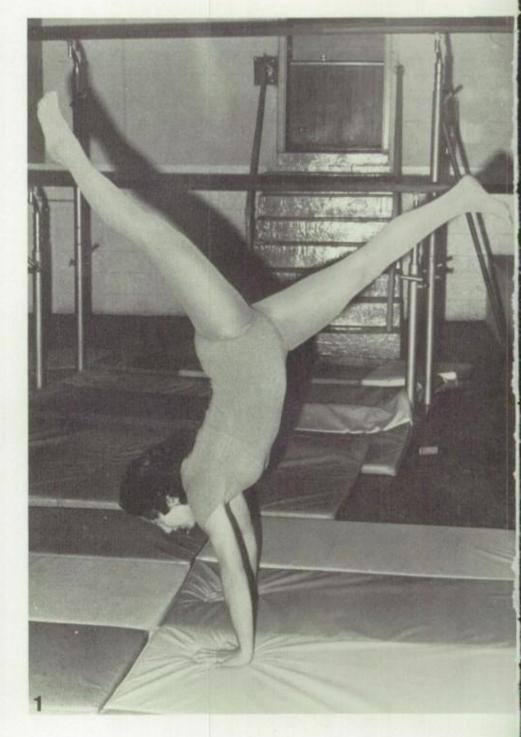

- (1) John Swinney and Melody Parker read along with a tape in English IV.
- (2) David Hagar and Debbie Bown are shown listening attentively to another of Mrs. Andrus's English lectures.
- (3) Gali Schatz and Charles Beebe take notes during French.
- (4) Mrs. Hancock's Freshman class study the basics of the English language.
- (5) Kay Courtney participates in a demonstration for Speech I.

Gymnastics Proved Worthwhile

This year a new class, gymnastics, was added to the curriculum, being taught and coached by Mrs. Shannon Durbin.

- (1) Diane Jackson demonstrates a back extension roll for 5th hour gymnastics.
- (2) Doing a basket on the uneven parallel bars is Pam Cole.
- (3) Robbin Hunter is shown doing the Chinese splits on the balance beam. She is spotted by Instructor Mrs. Durbin and Kathy Lawrence.

Students Survive Their Own Cooking

- (1) The second hour home economics class and guests enjoy their meal.
- (2) Martha Stanton and Carolyn Brown work on their home furnishing project.
- (3) Placing in the Make It With Wool Contest were: Beverly Pittman, sixth in senior division; Suzanne Brown, sixth in junior division; and Renita Cole, fourth in senior division.

VO—AG: Learning for The Future

It took awhile, but Jimmy Butler and Tony Mahon finally figured out that a wagon needs wheels to roll.
 Building hay feeders is just one of the many jobs done in the Vo Ag Shop.

(2) Farmwork is not only done on the farm but also in the classroom where crop rotations, feed rations, and breeding charts are figured.(4) "Where'd that cameraman come from?" seems to be the expression written across both Larry and Mike Day's faces.

Industrial Arts Provides Experience

Mr. Ermen Hillhouse holds a B.S. in Education from SMSU. He instructs three General Shop classes and two Wood working classes.

Mr. W. L. Mason has a B.S. from SMSU in Industrial Education. Mr. Mason teaches classes in Woods, Metals, and Power Mechanics.

(1) Not only does the Power Mechanics Class study small engines, but also studies the mechanics of rocket engines.

Business Students Adapt

- (1) Patty Adams, a junior, is shown here working on her shorthand assignment.
- (2) No one's years at RHS would be complete without the experience of a typing class. Here typical students strive to finish their assignment before the bell rings.
- (3) One of the many practical skills learned in clerical practice is the using and working functions of the duplicating machine.

- (1) Juniors Roxene Pierson and Julie Wilcox are shown here working on their bookkeeping study guides.
- (2) Clerical practice student Kathy McGruder uses one of the new adding machines.
- (3) Mrs. Claudia Crumrine, who was unable to complete the school year, taught typing and shorthand classes. Mrs. Passmore took over the classes during the year.
- (4) Mrs. Oldham teaches Bookkeeping I & II at RHS. She also teaches the advanced clerical work classes.

Vo Tech Advances Students Skills

- (1) Terry O'Dell is reminded by Mr. Carter to adjust her side view mirror before pulling out.
- (2) Roy Hagewood prepares his car to be repainted in the Auto body class at Vo-Tech.
- (3) Drivers' Ed not only has on-the-job-training, but also involves classtime.

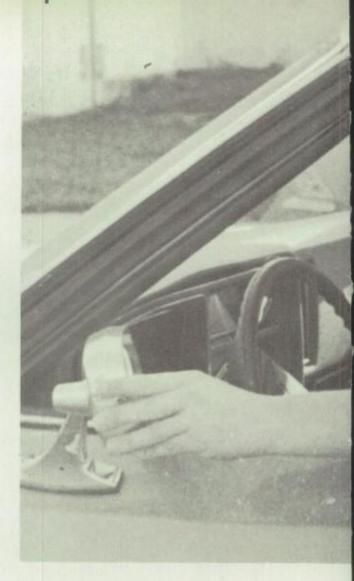

Don Maupin – BSE Ark. State, SMSU; Dr. Ed; PE

Hard

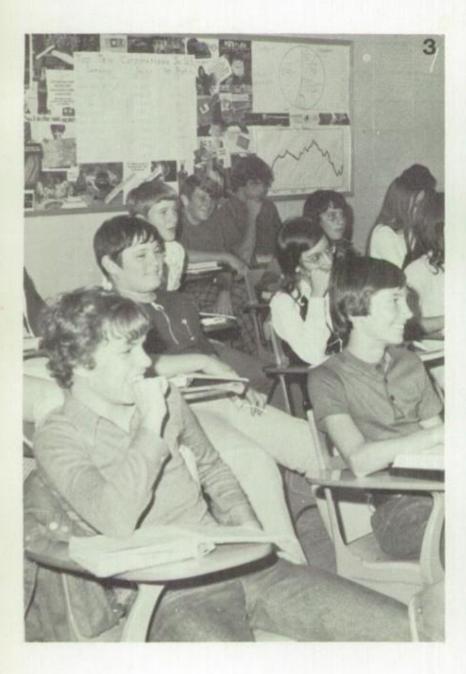

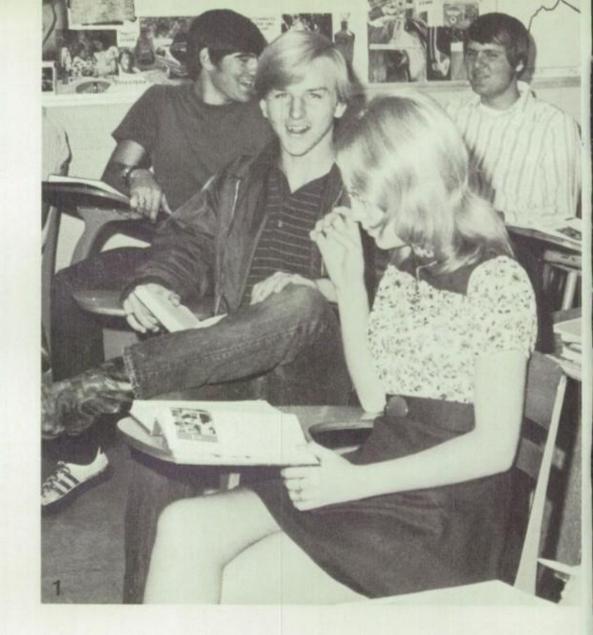

(1) Even Drivers' Education can't make "ace" drivers out of all of us. As seen in the picture, Rick Bierman causes Mr. Larry Carter to flinch a little by almost crashing into a telephone pole.

(2) Matt Crim and Joe Lakins study circuitry in their Vo-Tech electronics class.

History Classes Expand Knowledge Of Past

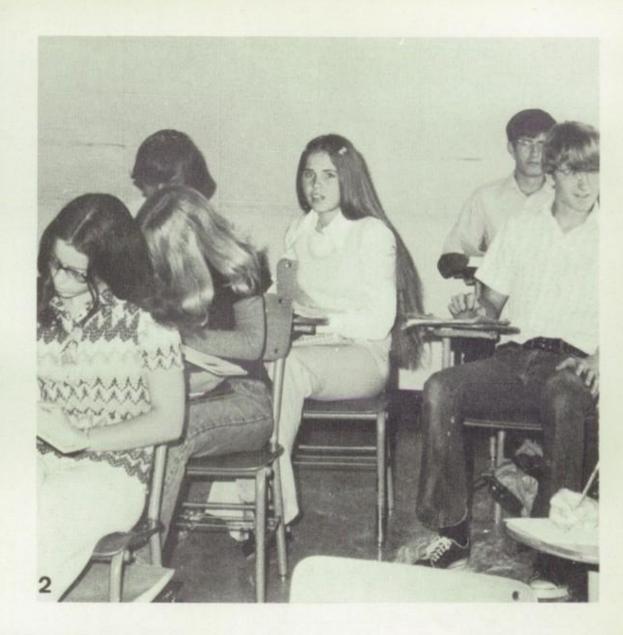

- (1) Mr. Ovitt's Economics Class listens intently to his superior art of speaking.
- (2) Debbie McClure looks up with a surprised look on her face as the photographer catches her at one of her most studious moments.
- (3) These Freshmen jokingly laugh at one of the few comical excerpts from the US Constitution.
- (4) This sophomore World Geography class seems to be intently listening to one of Mr. Stephenson's amazingly interesting lectures.
- (5) Mr. Stephenson's Anthropology class works studiously as Dan Caldwell gives a sly glance towards the camera.
- (6) Members of the Social Studies club take time to enjoy a short game of touch football, in which the girls slaughtered the boys. Final score not printable.

Answers to Tomorrow

(1) Keith Calton, Renee Ramsey, Illona Lewis, Linda Dickens, Tom Bates, and Brenda White study a problem as it is answered by the teacher in Algebra II.

(2) A large band of freshmen study intensively and take down notes from a science lecture.

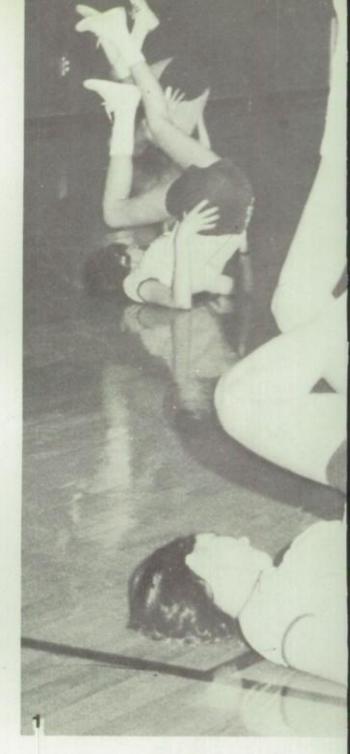

Doris Gragg-BS Ed SMSU; Biology I; Gen. Sci.

Thora Duffield-BA Drury; Alg.; Math.

PE and Health

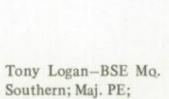

- (1) A small group of girls do bicycles to help them achieve their desired figures.
- (2) A rebound seems to be in the making during a small basketball game during the 6th hour physical education class.

Don Maupin-BSE Ark. State and SMSU; Dr. Ed. PE.

Bob Knight – BS Ed – Ark. State; Health, Psychology.

Jim Chambers-BS Ed-Henderson State; History; Ass't. coach, Track, PE.

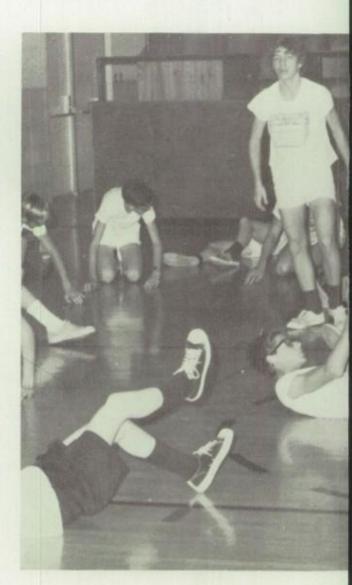

Minor Dr. Ed.; SH.

Builds Bodies and Minds

- (1) Georgia Jones and Debbie Hannah assist Sharon McConnell while she performs a routine on the parallel bars.
- (2) No, they're not a bunch of weirdos-it just happened to be 50's day when this picture was taken.
- (3) This fourth hour PE class completes—or nearly completes—required push-ups and sit-ups which help tone-up their "near perfect" bodies. Well, at least their bodies.

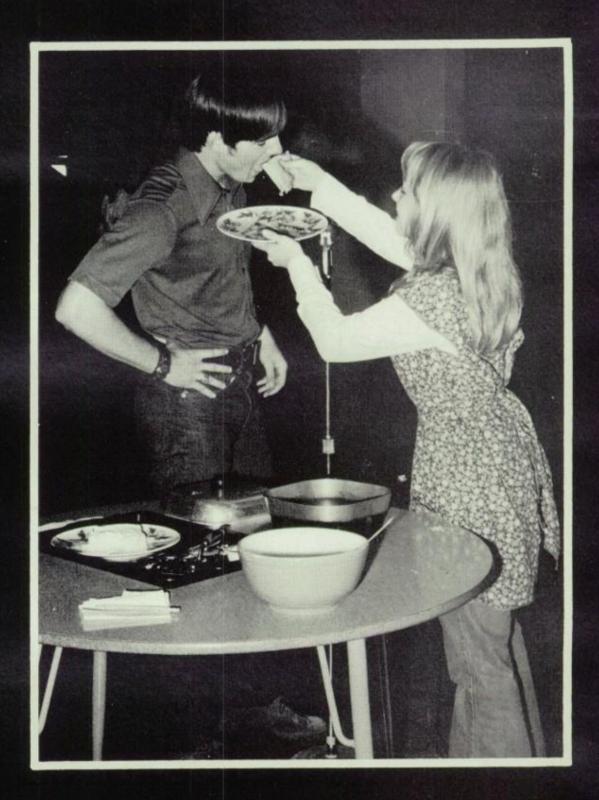

"It is not enough to be busy; so are the ants.

The question is: What are we busy about?"

First row: Joe McCullough, Joe Young, Larry Chism, Joe Lane, John McConnell, Phil Davidson, and Bob Wimmer.

Foreign Exchange Students . . .

One of the Foreign Exchange Students who attended RHS this year was Carmen Parreno from Lima, Peru, South America. During her 6-month stay, Carmen enjoyed many new ideas and customs much different from her homeland. Carmen is 17 and attended RHS as a senior. She resided with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Maples.

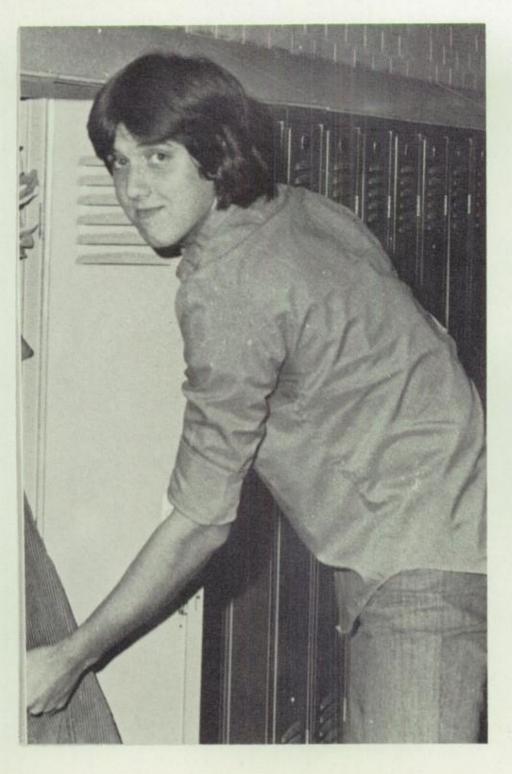

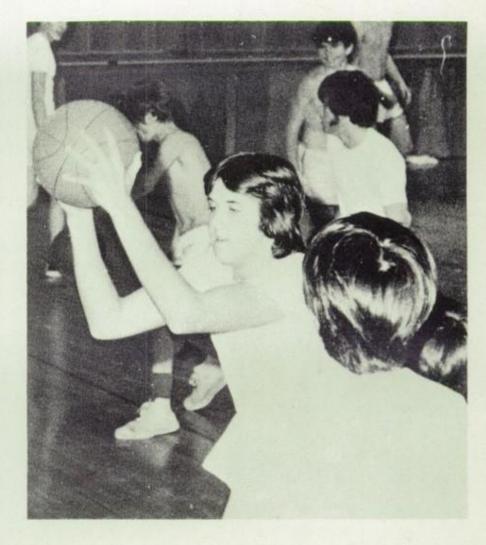

Enjoy Yankee Hospitality

Pallo Villar was our other Foreign Exchange Student. Pallo is 15 and formerly attended high school in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, South America before his 6-month visit at Republic. Experiencing the American way of life was very rewarding to Pallo, who lived with the Dean Anderson family during his stay.

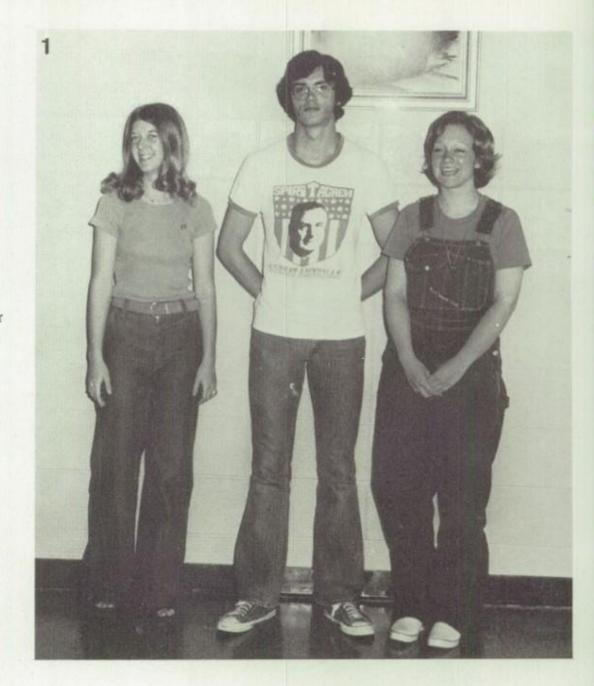

Elected Officers Serve Well

(1) The three people who led the student council this year are from the right: Marti Coggin (secretary), John Sweeney (vice-president), and Lyn Bennett (president).

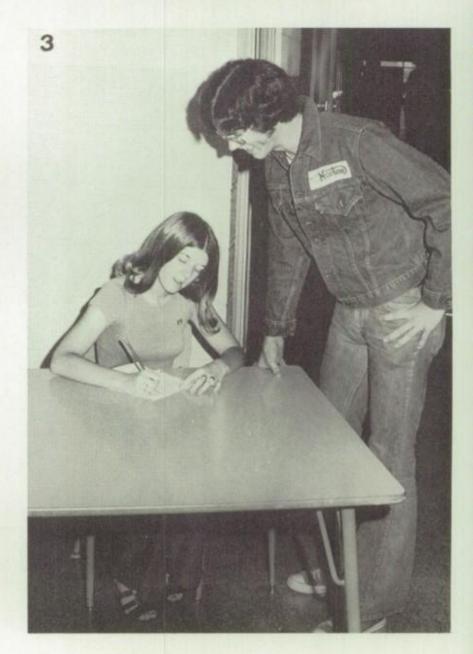

(2) President Lyn Bennett discusses upcoming events with Mr. Farwell.

(3) Secretary Marti Coggin looks over the minutes of the last student council meeting while vice-president John Swinney looks on.

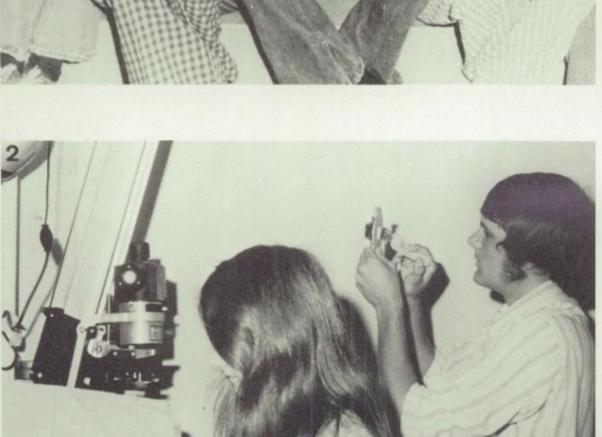

Lyn Bennett was the first girl to be elected student body president in five years, and with the help of John and Marti, did a very good job in heading the student council.

One Picture . . . A Thousand Words

(2) Christi Stark and David Stocker print pictures in the dark room.

(3) Kim Hancock sets up the video-tape camera, part of the video equipment that the school purchased this year.

Voila La Tour Eiffel!

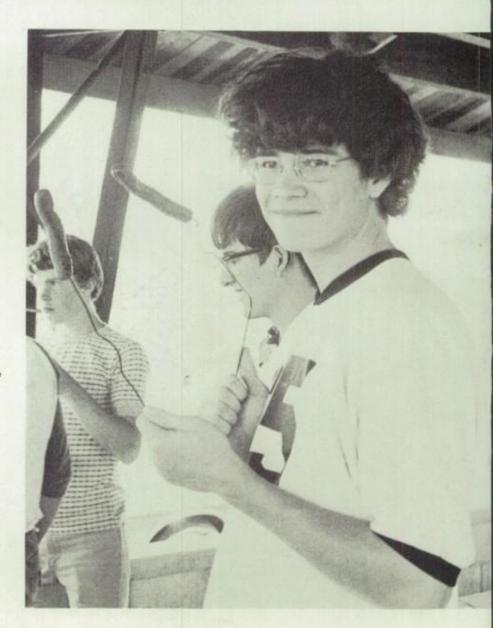

This year's French club has had many activities, including initiation, caroling at Christmas, a bowling party, a French banquet, and a picnic.

(1) Members are: Front row: M. Coggin, G. Schatz, C. Stark, K. Lawrence, L. Montgomery. Second row: M. Ruckman, B. Williams, D. Henson, M. Chadwell, D. McClure, G. Evans, C. Kolar, L. Engle, K. Adams, C. Blevins, T. Robbins, J. Wilcox, R. Pierson, T. McCullough, F. Taylor, P. Johnson, N. Prange, and J. Short. Standing: Sponsor Mrs. Chris Stockton, D. Lane, D. Nachtrab, C. Sifferman, J. Schumerth, J. Scott, R. Richesin, P. Fisk, V. Hohenfeldt, C. Coonis, V. Cavener, and R. Robbins.

Participation Sparks Speech Club

(1) One of the many activities Speech Club sponsored was a reader's theatre of "The Homecoming" at the Christmas party.

(2) Even officers are allowed to bring down the house once in awhile. Somewhere under all that junk are: Kendall McPhail, treasurer; Cathy Coonis, secretary; Brenda Gardner, president; Sheree Perkins, vice president; and Joanna Billingsly, historian.

(3) Donna Knight and Charles Beebe demonstarte their talents in "Next", the duet that took them to state.

(4) Brenda Gardner and Sheree Perkins tell Paul Hauge how to "keep time" at the COC Tournament hosted by Republic.

(5) Shown are the Outstanding Speech Club Members for 1973-74: Donna Knight, Sheree Perkins (who netted the most points this year), Brenda Gardner, and Charles Beebe. Incidentally those are the new stage curtains behind them and those odd looking things held by Donna and Charlie really are Golden Outhouses!

The 1974 Speech Club members were: First row: Kendall McPhail, Cathy Coonis, Miss Gallion—sponsor, Brenda Gardner, Sheree Perkins. Second row: Greg Lacey, Laurie Montgomery, Jana Blades, Nancy Pipkin, Susy Blades, Mary Ann Pipkin. Third row: Melody Parker, Gennie Evans, Cathy Billingsly, Diane Batson, Daphne Henson, Nolan Garrett. Fourth row: Beth Faulk, Jeannie Guss, Cindy Weatherford, Juantia Lee, JoAnna Billingsly, Donna Knight. Fifth row: Cindy Beebe, Diane Jackson, Pam Fisk, Rob Peck, Kayla Boatright, Russ Lawter. - (2) Here the officers and sponsors discuss money matters.
- (3) Shown here all all the officers doing a little cheating.

Float Takes First

In its second year in existence the Applied Arts Association, or Art Club achieved one of the highest goals an organization can win. They won the Springfield Christmas Parade's Fantasy division with their entry of a jack in the box constructed by the Art Club members, under the direction of Mrs. Norma Wiebe.

(1) The Art Club also participated in the clubs assembly, offering their own interpretation of the history of art.

(2) Key Club officers were John Humphries, treasurer; Philip Davidson, secretary; Bob Williams, vice-president; and Kevin Corner, president.

For Community Service

Key Club's main function is to provide service to the school and the community. The club succeeded in providing this service by doing things such as selling raffle tickets in order to buy food baskets for needy families at Thanksgiving, selling candy to collect money for the National Kidney fund, and by sponsoring Basketball Intramurals to help pay for the school's new video-tape machine.

Throughout the year, Key Club's members did what they could to help better the community in which they lived.

Stocker, and John Inmon.

(3) Key Club Sponsor Clifford Stephenson discusses plans for the upcoming basketball

Intramurals with club president Kevin Corner.

Publications Staff-Produces Largest Yearbook Ever

(1) REPMO Co-Editors Kathy Lawrence and Lois Jones proofread yearbook layouts to be sent in the next shipment. One of the projects the publications class sponsored this year was the fantastic annual Talent Show. While the judges tallied up the results, the class entertained the audience with skits of happenings during the school year.

(2) Mrs. Judy Ray and Mrs. Chris Stockton jitterbug, bringing back memories of "Fifties' Day."

(3) Keith Calton and Lynette Dorrell reminisce the good old days of junior magazine sales.

- (1) Staff members that worked so diligently this year were, top row: JoAnna Billingsley; Keith Calton, David Stocker, Mrs. Judy Ray, adviser; Tom Howell, Alan Rader, and Lynette Dorrell. Next row down: Mike Bridges, Marti Coggin, and John Inmon. Sitting in the doorways are Sheree Perkins and Brenda Gardner. The heads in the windows belong to Lois Jones and Kathy Lawrence, and sitting on the ground is REPMO Business Manager Annis Maples.
- (2) TIGER TRACKS Editor Sheree Perkins and Asst. Editor Brenda Gardner look over issues of the paper before delivering them to the students.
- (3) Quill and Scroll members enjoy a dinner that was held at the Red Lobster Inn early in the year.

Entertain the Masses

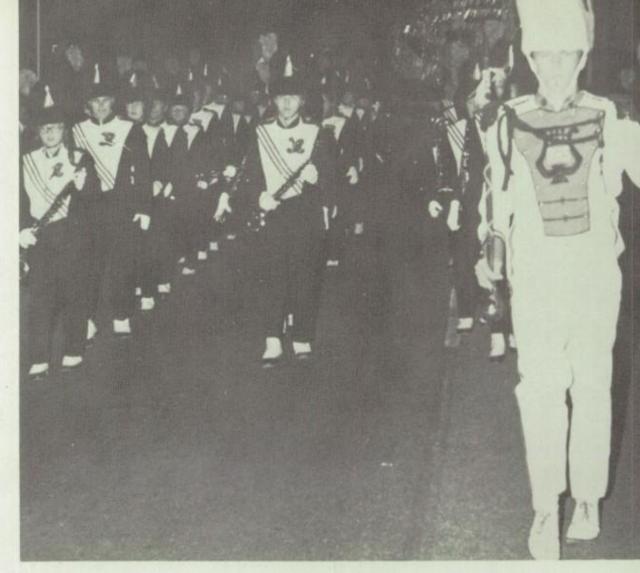

Making up the twirling squad this year was Julie Wilcox, Leslie Pyaett, Chris Gossett, Jana Blades, Annis Maples, and Debbie Decker (unavailable for picture).
 Chris served as feature twirler this year.
 Annis seems to be having trouble with a pair of loose earmuffs during the Springfield Christmas Parade.

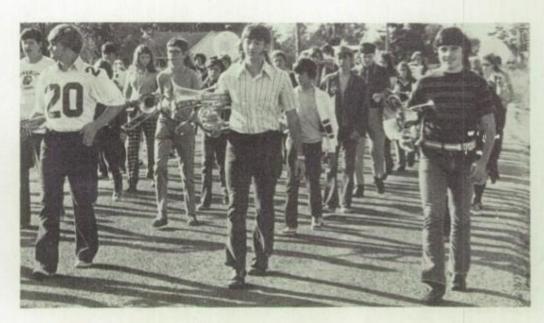

"Band Take The Field"

The RHS Marching Band, under the direction of Mrs. Phylis Lentz, for the first year participated in the SMS Homecoming Parade, the Springfield Christmas Parades, the Branson Christmas Parade, SWBC Homecoming Parade, and the Carthage Mapleleaf Marching Festival (which includes a football half time show contest).

... And Indeed They Did!!!

The Marching Band under the leadership of Junior Drum Major Blake Simmons participated in all the home football game half time shows, and an exchange program in which our Marching Band went to Willard (next year Willard's Marching Band will be featured here when Willard plays Republic). Band officers presiding over this years band were Tom Eubanks (senior) president, Philip Davidson (senior) vice-president, Cathy Coonis (junior) secretary, and Annis Maples (senior) treasurer.

Concert Band Receives Two Rating Overall At SMSU

This year, members of concert band who went to district contest received an overall "2" rating at SMSU and placed three "1's" and two "3's" at the state contest in Columbia. Receiving "1's" were Cathy Coonis, Debbie Wade, and members of the sax quartet-Cathy Coonis, Lisa Burke, Mark Arnold, Kim Tillotson, and accompanist Kim Wood. Receiving "3's" were Tom Eubanks and the flute quartet-Debbie Hannah, Kim Meacheam, Stacey Spafford, and Janice Vick. Students pictured at left are: First row: Janice Vick, Kim Meacheam, Stacey Spafford, and Debbie Hannah. Second row: Kim Tillotson, Cathy Coonis, and Lisa Burke. Third row: Mark Arnold, Kim Wood, Debbie Wade, and Tom Eubanks. Varsity Cheerleaders Back Tigers

3

The varsity cheerleading squad has been exceptionally active this year. Along with two JV cheerleaders, Robbin Hunter and Terri Champieux, the varsity squad traveled to Kansas City this summer to attend a week-long DCA cheerleading camp where they took third place in cheering competition. During the school year, the squad worked hard making posters, selling spirit ribbons, planning pep rallies, struggling to perfect all those cheers and stunts during practices, and striving to keep up school spirit through a losing basketball season.

Tigers Show Year of Rebuilding

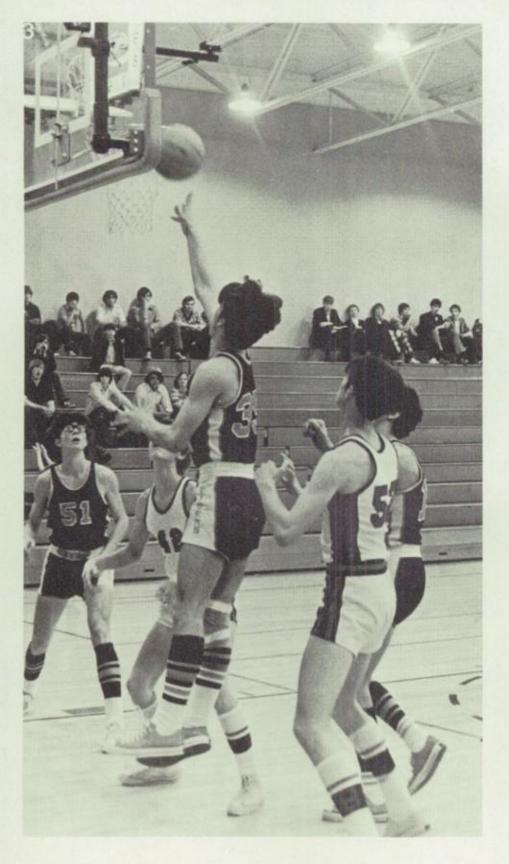

The 73-74 Republic Varsity Basketball Tigers consisted of: Back row: Coach Larry Carter, sophomore Rick Bierman, junior Mark Ruckman, junior Steve Brown, sophomore Kelly Clark, sophomore Dewayne Meyer, sophomore Brad Coggin, and Coach Tony Logan. Front row: junior David Lane, senior Kevin Corner, freshman Joe Lane, sophomore Jerry Trogdon, junior Roy Haguewood, Jerry Newberry, and junior manager Ricky Patton.

Kevin Corner has participated in Republic's Basketball Program since 7th grade, having to layout his Sophomore year because of a knee injury. Kevin was the only senior on this year's ball club. Junior Steve Brown was voted to be on the All Conference First Team this year. While Mark Ruckman received honorable mention. Steve was also named Best Defensive Player, and had the best Freethrow percentage. Mark supported leading scorer and rebounder titles. The season as a whole was one of rebuilding with only one senior. The Tigers finished 7-16 overall and 6-8 in conference.

Young Tigers Gain Much Needed Experience

- (1) Steve Brown seems to be giving the Logan-Rogersville players the same "medicine" that Mark Ruckman gave to the Willard players earlier.
- (2) The Tiger defense shows its powerful "fangs" in stopping the opposing offense.
- (3) Coaches Carter and Logan give the team a few helpful instructions during a brief, but well deserved rest.

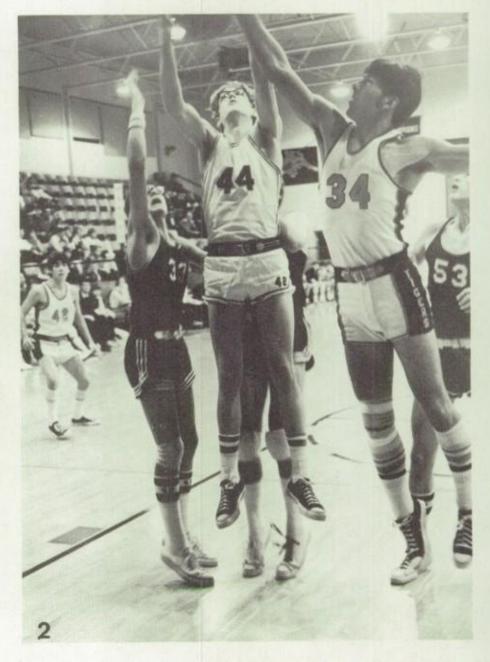

Experience Gained by JV and Frosh

The Republic J.V. basketball team, coached by Tony Logan, ended the year with a record of 8-11. This year's team saw the appearances of many underclassmen. Almost the entire team was made up of freshmen and sophomores, with two juniors on the squad to add experience. (1) Kelly Clark shoots a free throw. (2) Kim Hancock and Dwayne Myers fight for a rebound. (3) Squad members include: Bottom row: Joe McCullough, Joe Lane, Bruce Batson, Jerry Trogden, Ronny Long, Roy Hagewood, and Jerry Newberry. Back row: Coach Larry Carter, Joe Trogden, Alex Hamilton, David Deffenbaugh, Kim Hancock, Kelly Clark, Mark Stufflebeam, Dwayne Myers and Coach Tony Logan.

The Freshman basketball team this year ended its season with a very respectable 13-7 record.

(1) In action, Mark Stufflebeam waits for a chance to rebound a fellow Tiger's shot.

(2) Freshmen basketball members include, front row:

Trackmen Face Tough Competition

- (1) Senior John Swinney provided leadership in running both the Open 440 and as anchor man on the Mile Relay.
- (2) Junior Alan Rader shows his masculine strength by hurling the shot to place once again.
- (3) Jack Bridges, a junior, participated in both High Jump and Pole Vault to be the leading scorer with 40 points for the year.
- (4) Coach Jim Chambers checks the qualifying time to see another Republic runner finish first.

Bottom row: Tom Humphries, Mike Schodde, Don Sparkman, Gary Balaski, Dwayne Myers, Randy McConnell, Rodney Rader, Mark Waterman, and Alan Brown.

(2) Jerry Newberry, this year at the COC Meet, went 12'6" for a new conference record.

Newberry Sets New COC Record

This years baseball Tigers were made up of: Back row: Coach Larry Carter, Tom Eubanks, Ronnie Long, Brad Coggin, Jim Gray, Bob Wimmer, Phil Davidson, Kevin Corner, Kenny Stufflebean, and Coach Neil Pittman. Front row: Manager Mike Brown, Scooter Lawter, Mark Emery, Alan Brown, David Lane, Joe Lane, Bob Yocum, Jerry Newberry, and Manager Ivan Patton.

Republic's seniors presented a good foundation for the 73-74 year. Kevin Corner this year's only four-year letterman, has been an exceptional pitcher for the Republic Baseball teams. Phil Davidson who was this year's catcher was lost for season in the Regional Tournament when he separated his shoulder, despite this fact he still received the best batter award. Tom Eubanks has shown fine leadership in his outfield position. Tom and Phil were both three-year lettermen. Bob Wimmer also an outfielder, lettered for the first time this year. David Lane was named best fielder this year.

Baseballers Youthful

- (1) Jerry Newberry reaches out for the play at first to help the pitcher out of the inning.
- (2) Kevin Corner goes through the wind up to deliver his famous curve ball, to strike out another batter.
- (3) Tom Eubanks and Jimmy Gray await their turn at the batter's box, as Jerry Newberry "swats" a few.
- (4) Coach Pittman is about to show David Lane the proper technique in swinging, as Kevin delivers the pitch.
- (5) Tom Eubanks awaits the pitch in the outfield to stop a possible rally.

- (1) Marti Coggin urges someone to take a chance. The cheerleaders operated a ring toss booth, which was very successful.
- (2) In order to make money to sponsor a foreign exchange student, the French club had a pastry booth.
- (3) The Fall Festival provided everyone with a good time; between the booths and the rides, this year's Fall Festival was a great success.

A Time For Living

The RHS fall play, "A Time for Living," was a real experience for the cast, director, and everyone who lent a hand in its production.

(1) Mother, Sheree Perkins, and her daughter, Brenda Gardner, are shown here discussing last minute plans while waiting on Becky's boyfriend.

(2) Brian, Mike Bridges, is captured tolerating a presumptious young flirt portrayed by Melody Parker.

(3) Cathy Coonis, the French teacher, is explaining to her class correct pronunciations.

(4) The entire cast, including light crew Tom Eubanks and Bob Williams, listen to last minute instructions.

(5) Of course no production would be complete without a real clown, Donna Knight. She demonstrates her dramatic ability by screaming into the microphone.

(6) Last, but by no means least, the all important director is shown in what is called her own "frustrated poise."

Preparations Made For . . .

- (1) Performing a skit for the pep assembly are Daphne Henson, Joanna Billingsley, and Jackie Bridges.
- (2) Star-making for the dance decorations can prove to be monotonous or so it seems with Tom Eubanks, Cindy Weatherford, Christi Stark, and Kerri's arms.
- (3) Accepting the first place ribbon for the best decorated hall is the big senior class president Bob Williams, Presenting the prize is Cindy Quessenberry.

"Such A Night"

- (1) Kathy Lawrence apparently is amazed at how her sweeping has improved the looks of the community center before the dance.
- (2) Demonstrating her great strength, Cindy Quessenberry is shown participating in the car smash at the bonfire.
- (3) Jackie Bridges catches a wary glance from Dianne Jackson during a skit at the bonfire.

"50's Day" Combined It All

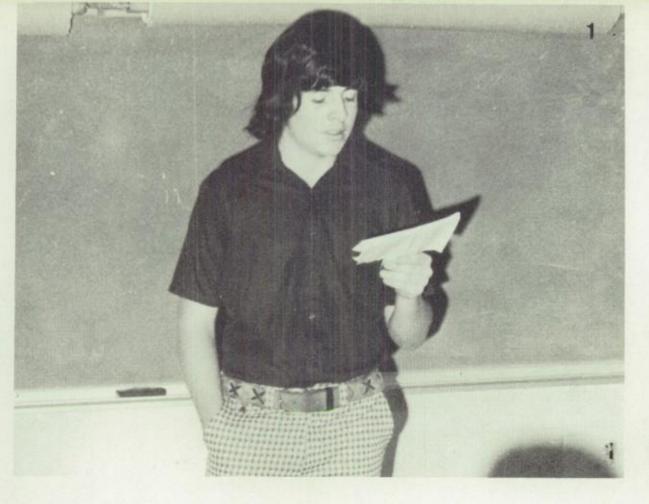

(1) Winners for best costume during "50's Day" were Coach Logan, Natalie Sims, Mrs. Lentz, Bruce Lindsey, and Paul Hauge.
(2) Susie Blades and Kim Wood seem to be enjoying a little stroll down the halls of RHS.
(4) The jitterbug and good ol' rock and roll jazzed many classrooms, especially the drama class. the drama class.

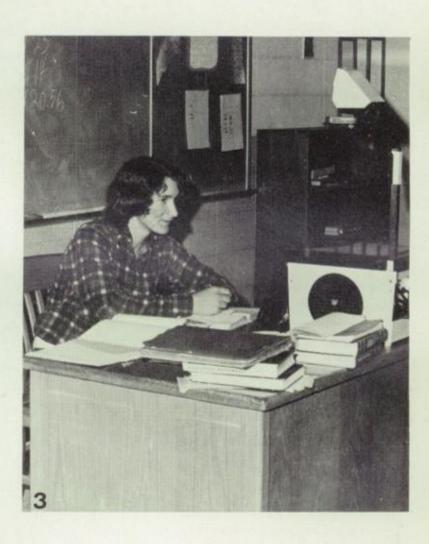

Practice Makes Perfect

- (1) John Inmon taught classes at the junior high school on FTA Teach-In day. He assisted Coach Pittman with a program in history.
- (2) First graders are fascinating and fun as Becky Woods soon found out on Teach-In day.
- (3) Math was taught in the high school by Nolan Garett, which took lots of hard work and preparation.

Oklahoma "Hits" Republic

OKLAHOMA was presented by the music and drama departments, under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Lentz and Miss Deborah Gallion, as the spring musical. It was titled as a "hit" and a "lot of fun."

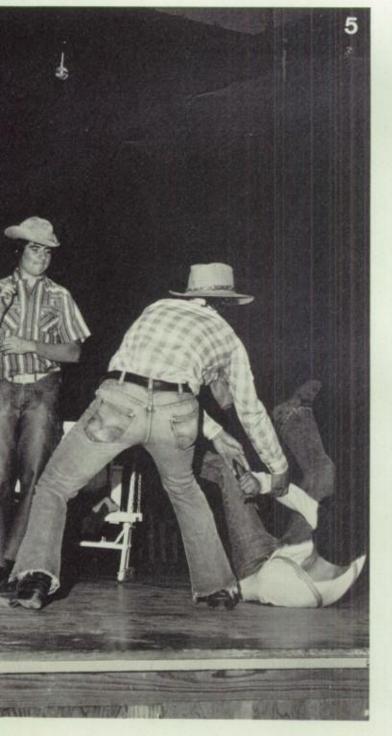

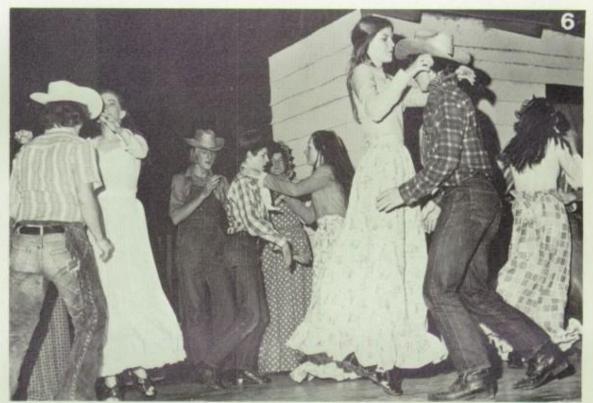

- (1) No, John and Lana aren't dancing, its just that backstage gets awfully crowded during a set change.
- (2) Ali Hackam's (Charles Beebe) astonished face comes from Andrew Carnes (Bob Williams) having just announced Ali's engagement to Ado Annie (Kim Wood).
- (3) Will Parker (Kevin Corner) describes the proportions of the girl he met in Kansas City to Rick Inmon, Nolan Garett, John Inmon, and Mark Schad.
- (4) Curly (Blake Simmons) confronts Laurie (Jana Blades), while Sheree Perkins as Aunt Eller eavesdrops.
- (5) Jud Fry (Tom Eubanks), evil fiend that he is, is just about to meet his doom as Curly throws him to the ground.
- (6) The dancers shown were an "added something" to OKLAHOMA. They practiced continually and did a really fine job.
- (7) Of course another important part of any musical is the pit band; they worked harder than anyone and were a definite factor in OKLAHOMA's success.

Kerri Reigns

- (1) Basketball Week festivities were climaxed by the crowning of Kerri Quessenberry as the 1974 Basketball Queen.
- (2) Steve Brown, captain for the game, starts to give Kerri the traditional kiss.
- (3) Kerri and Kevin solo in a memory-filled Queen's dance.
- (4) Ever eat a rose? Kerri proves that some parts are edible at the moment of decision.
- (5) Kerri, a senior, has served as vice president and secretary of Student Council, and served as Social Co-Chairman this year. She has been a cheerleader for three years and is the 1974 head cheerleader for the varsity squad. Kerri is a member of several clubs and is an active part of RHS.
- (6) The Queen and her court as they looked at the game: Julie Montgomery, freshman candidate; Terri Champieux, sophomore candidate; Queen Kerri Quessenberry; and Marti Coggin, junior candidate.

Spirit-Filled Week Precedes Festivities

- (1) One activity of Basketball Week was "No-Match Day." Shown here are three spirit-filled participants: Sandy Young, Joe Schumerth, and Laurel Scott.
- (2) The winner of the mock queen contest was the beautiful junior candidate Greg Lacey. Other contestants were Senior David Stocker, Sophomore Kendall McPhail, and Freshman Mark Lane.
- (3) The cheerleaders performed an outstanding pompon routine during the half time of the exciting Homecoming game.

- (1) Kathy Maley and Kendall McPhail manage to handle their own new dance, called "Keep on Crutching."(2) Above, two freshmen contribute their own part to the spirit week by guessing the total weight of the queen candidates.

Sunshine Show Big Success

- (1) Lynn Propps was only one of the girls who performed in the gymnastic portion of the show. Here she does a routine on the balance beam.
- (2) Dancers performed various folk dances for the audience and here they are shown doing the Salty Dog Rag.
- (3) Rhonda Jennings is captured here modeling the outfit she made in her Home Ec class. She as well as other students enrolled in classes modeled the various outfits they made during the year. Long dresses, short dresses and pant suits were the favorite attire.

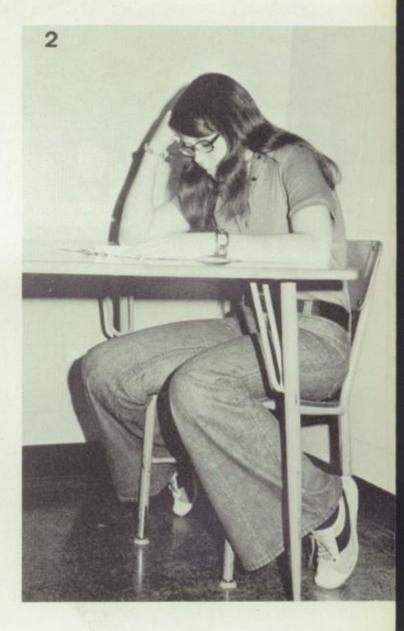

T of K Takes Loss

- (1) One explanation for their heartbreaking loss at the hands of Crane might be that the T of K members never learned to read with the books right-side-up! At left Kendall McPhail, Cathy Coonis, Mike Bridges, Joanna Billingsley, and Melody Parker display this error.
- (2) Below Cathy spends time boning up on some needed information.
- (3) While team captain Melody Parker frolics during Senior Week, the remainder of the team displays sun grins for the camera while atop Mrs. Ray's car.

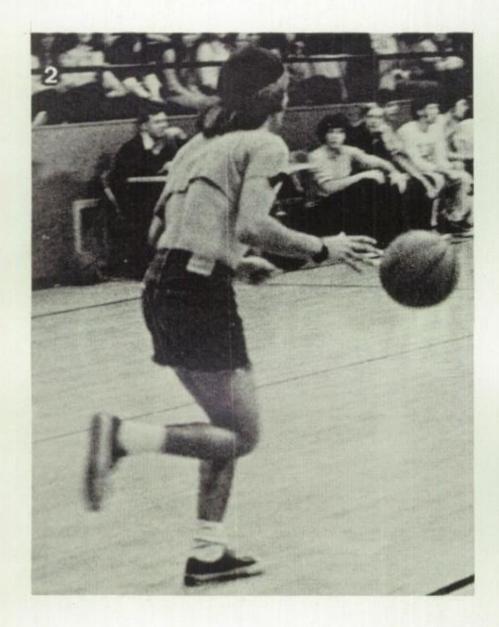

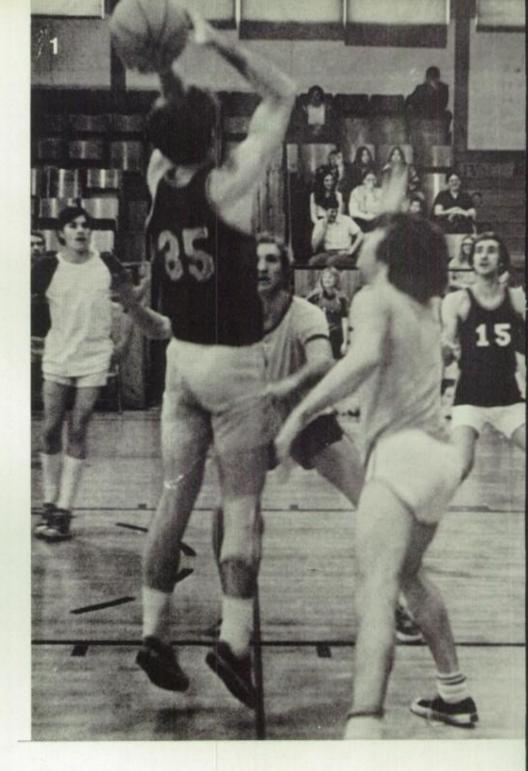

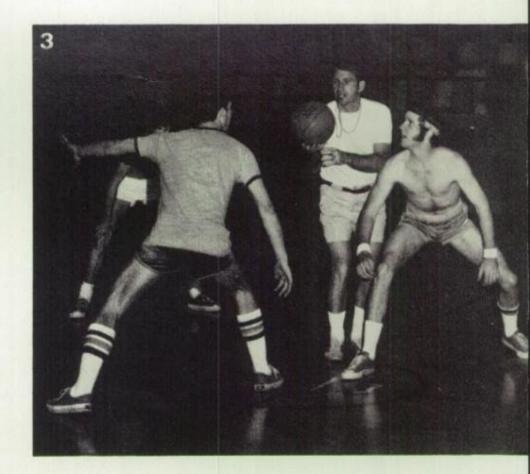

Faculty Takes Intramural Championship

Key Club sponsored the basketball intramurals this year. Eight teams were involved, and the winning team out of the eight played the faculty.

(1) Coach Larry Carter goes up for a shot in the student-faculty game.
 (2) Larry Chism heads down court with the ball.
 (3) Dwayne Myers (left), and Brad Coggin are ready for the jump.

Girls' Track Added to Sports Curriculum

Top Ten "Makes the Grade"

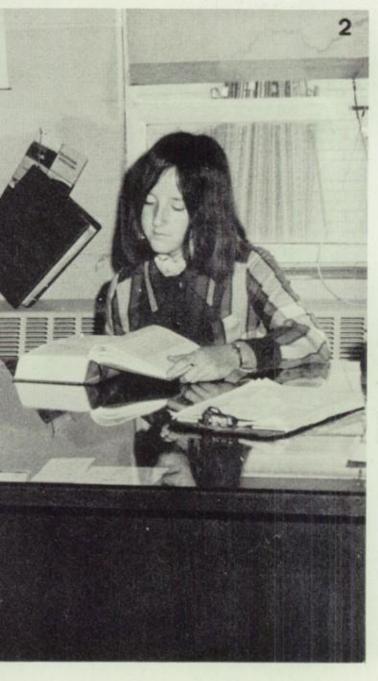

At the end of the seventh semester, grades were averaged, and the top ten seniors of 1974 were announced. They are as follows:

Elise Rader	10.84
Sharon McConnell	10.78
Lois Jones	10.48
Melody Parker	10.47
Vicki Hohenfeldt	10.19
Christi Stark	10.08
Laurel Scott	10.05
John Swinney	10.00
Kerri Quessenberry	9.94
Dennis Gentry	9.75

- (1) Looking out over beautiful Wilson Creek are, top row: John Swinney, Christi Stark, Vicki Hohenfeldt, Lois Jones, Kerri Quessenberry, and Dennis Gentry. Bottom row: Sharon McConnell, Laurel Scott, Melody Parker, and Elise Rader.
- (2) Elise Rader, valedictorian, plans to further her education at SMSU and the University of Missouri at Columbia and major in veterinary medicine.
- (3) Salutatorian Sharon McConnell plans to attend Drury College and major in Foreign language and physical education.

Good Times Wrap It Up

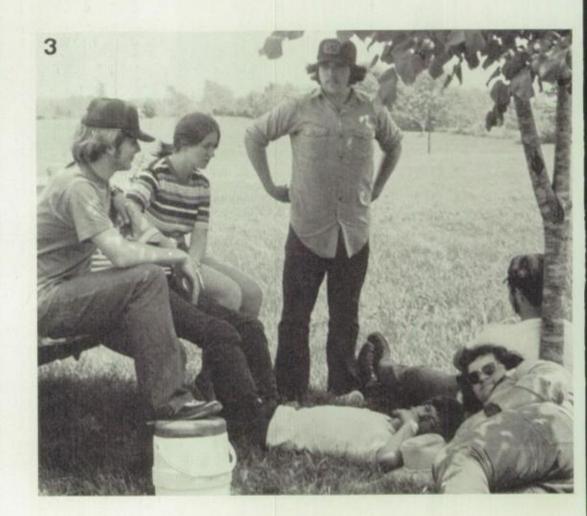

One of the highlights of the Senior year would definitely have to be the casual fun activities scheduled by the graduates during "senior week." Informality is the key word as students spend the last few days together as a group.

(1) Tom Howell (Missouri Chunk) contemplates his pool opponent's shot as Kathy Maley, Annis Maples and Randal the Hyde look on; the scene is Rosie (Brenda Gardner's) personal pool parlor.

(2) Perhaps it isn't their best side, but the girls dash for the fun as the class trip reaches Six Flags over Mid-America.
(3) Taking time out under the ole' shade tree are Steve Brown, Sandy Hotsenpiller, you guessed it Tom Howell again, Ed Sheppard, Gary Blaske, and Bill McNabb.

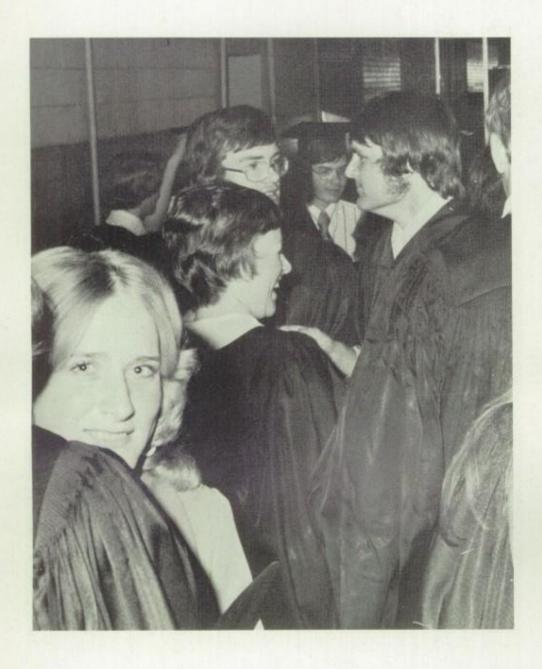

A class banquet has become a traditional part of closing activities. This year the class dined at the 89'er. Still eating later in the week, the gang ventured making homemade ice cream.

- (2) Putting away their share (and perhaps a little more) are Larry Jackson, Lois Jones, and Bob Williams.
- (3) Larry Kenney is joined amid a gathering of cars on a lazy day by some of his fellow classmates.

Baccalaureate, Graduation, Future

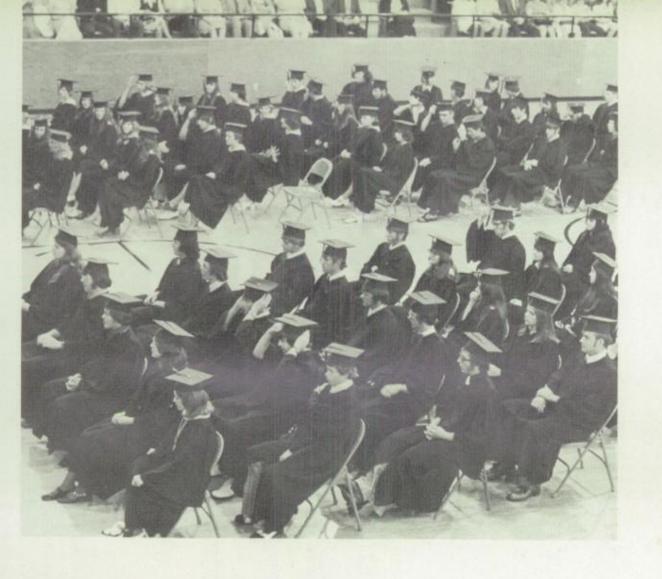

(2) Gene Cole, minister of the Hood Methodist Church, delivered the Baccalaureate address.

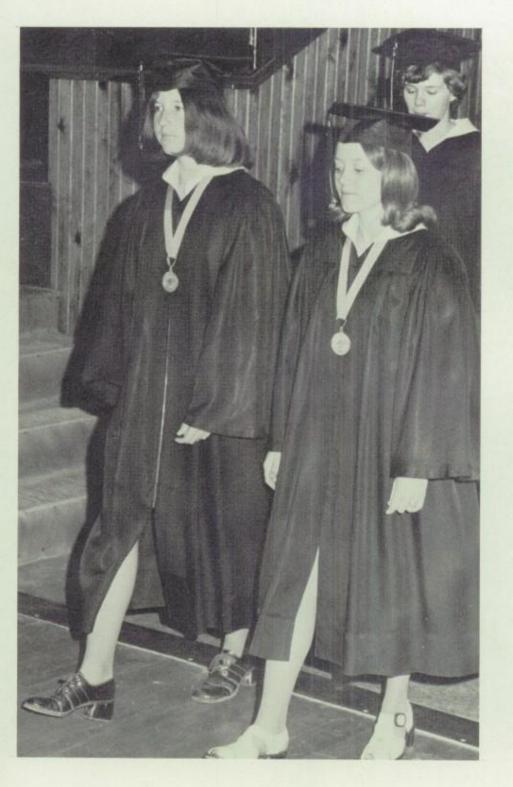

(3) The seniors stand while the rest of the class files in.

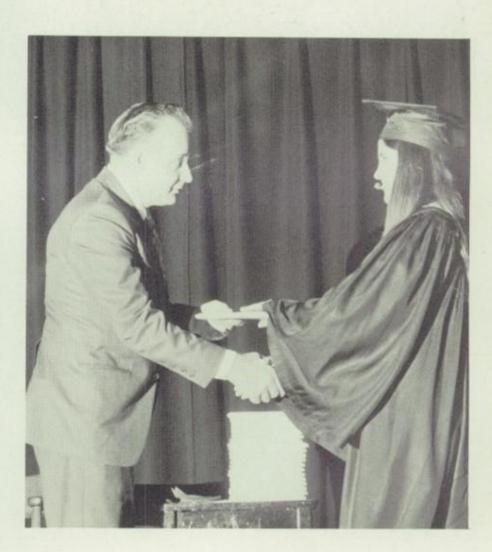

The Class
Of '74
Will Never Pass This Way Again

- (1) Seniors listen attentively to the graduation.
- (2) Mr. Schatz hands Kathy Maley her diploma with a smile and a hand-shake.
- (3) Valedictorian, Elise Rader, and Salutatorian Sharon McConnell lead the procession of seniors.

Students Honored in Annual Assembly

(1) Senior class President Bob Williams presented Valedictorian Elise Radar and Salutatorian Sharon McConnell with medals for their top two positions in the class.

(2) Mrs. Chris Stockton awarded top honors to these two foreign language students. Lisa Burke received the French medal and Cathy Coonis received the Spanish medal.

(3) Basketball Coach Larry Carter presented Mark Ruckman a trophy for being the leading rebounder for the 73-74 basketball season. Steve Brown was doubly honored by being awarded two trophies. One for being the best defensive player and the other for the best free throw shooter. At the end of basketball season Steve was also chosen by the conference coaches to be on the All Conference team. Other awards included medals and certificates from all academic departments and sports. The special $100 scholarship awarded by the CTA was given this year in memory of Miss Claudia Crumrine. The recipient was Sheree Perkins.

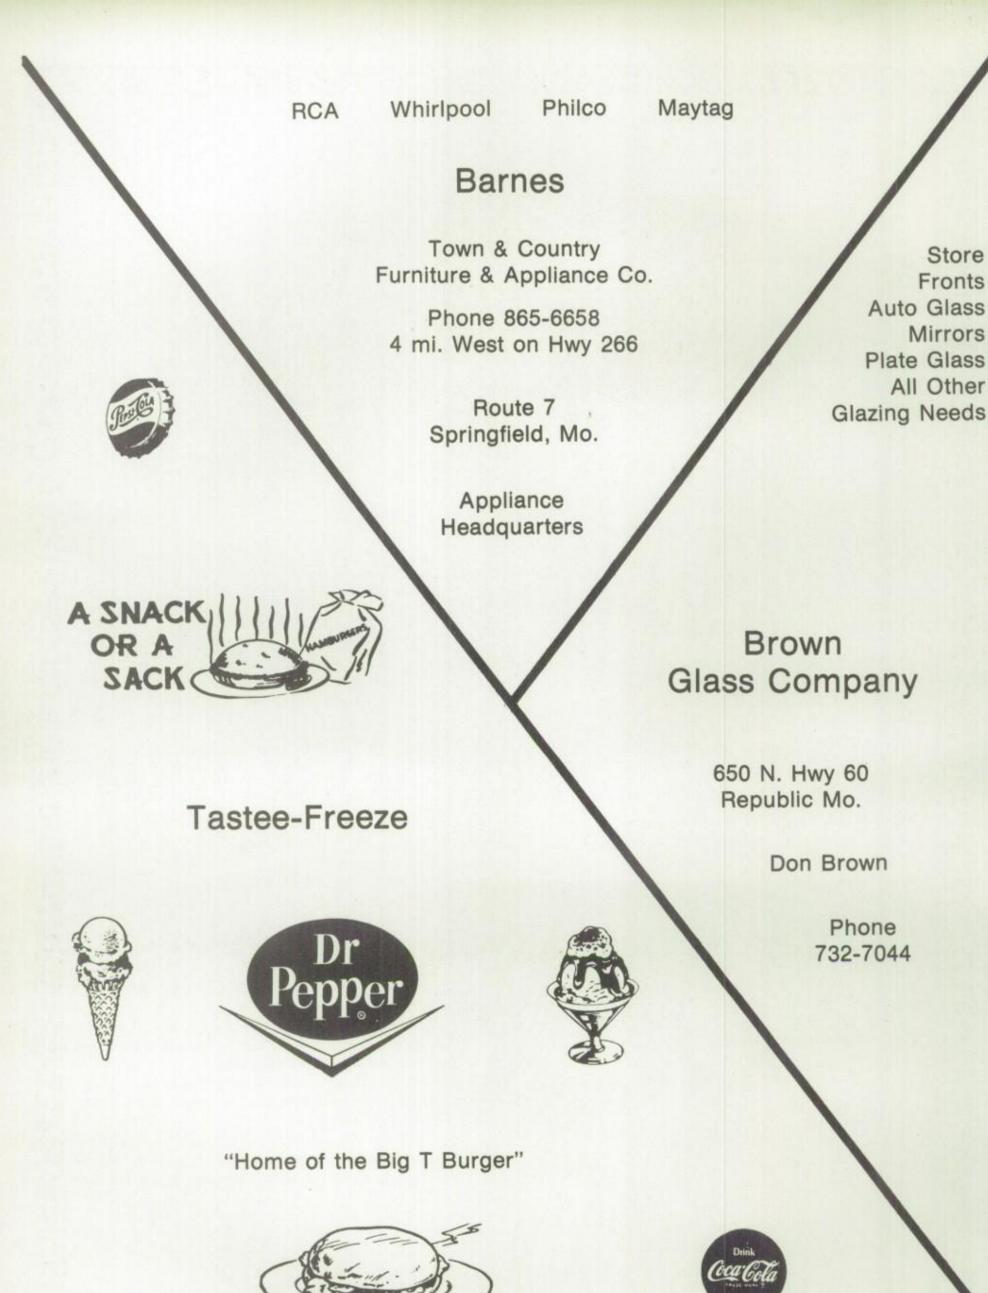

(1) Seniors Kerri Quessenberry and Kevin Corner were voted by the faculty as Best Citizens. Here Mr. Schatz presents the trophies and congratulates the two.

(2) English Instructor Carley Andrus presented Elise Radar with the English award for her outstanding achievement in the field of English.

(3) Mrs. Thora Duffield, mathematics teacher, presents math certificates to each of these four year students: John Swinney, Laurel Scott, Melody Parker, and Dennis Gentry.
